Review Highlights - At this "festive" East Side Italian-style duo, "Euro-types" mingle with "movers and shakers" to nibble "servings of fabulous food", sip "outstanding cappuccino" and stock up on oils, vinegars and coffees; "panini are the real bargain" among the "delicious"... offerings (the Uptown branch is famous for them), while wines (natch) are highlighted at the roomy Midtown spot with its signature risotto Amarone and its own special glassware to sip from or buy; N.B. a SoHo location is in the works.
